

PRACTITIONER TRAINING

Roundtable Session 5:

Social Work Support

Who should feel safe within a children's home?

Why is supervision important when serving an organization?

Why are people who care about vulnerable children more prone to experiencing secondary trauma?

Why is it important for advocates to take intentional breaks?

How can we avoid using Western ideals and context to define how we serve an organization in a different culture?

What perspective should an advocate take when coming alongside an organization?
